

Corporate & Social Responsibility Policy

This policy applies worldwide to Paterson Simons & Co (Africa) Limited and its subsidiaries (hereafter referred to as PSAL), and contractors employed by PSAL.

We believe Corporate & Social Responsibility is a key component to the growth of our business and our core values are embedded in our quality management system. Corporate & Social Responsibility is overseen by the board of directors and is evaluated as part of the company risk register and in various processes in the business including but not limited to the selection of suppliers and subcontractors, recruitment, staff policies and working practices.

Human Rights

PSAL acknowledges its responsibility to respect human rights. We comply with applicable international and local legal requirements in the countries in which we operate. Where local law conflicts with the principles contained in this Policy, we comply with local requirements while, at the same time, seeking ways to uphold the principles set forth in this Policy.

Respect for Human Rights

We respect human rights, and are committed to identify, prevent, and mitigate adverse human rights impacts resulting from or caused by our business activities before or if they occur through human rights due diligence and mitigation processes.

Valuing Diversity

We are committed to equal opportunity and intolerance of discrimination and harassment. We are dedicated to maintaining workplaces that are free from discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, sex, color, national or social origin, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, political opinion or any other status protected by applicable law.

Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining

We respect our employees' right to join, form or not to join a labor union without fear of reprisal, intimidation or harassment. Where employees are represented by a legally recognized union, we are committed to establishing a constructive dialogue with their freely chosen representatives. We are committed to bargaining in good faith with such representatives.

Health and Safety

We provide a safe and healthy workplace and comply with applicable safety and health laws, regulations and internal requirements. We are dedicated to maintaining a productive workplace by minimizing the risk of accidents, injury and exposure to health risks. We are committed to engaging with our employees to continually improve health and safety in our workplaces, including the identification of hazards and remediation of health and safety issues. The principles and obligations of our safety policy are set forth in the PSAL Group HSE Policy.

Workplace Security

We are committed to maintaining a workplace that is free from violence, harassment, intimidation and other unsafe or disruptive conditions due to internal and external threats.
